

47 & 48

Burberry's new children's wear for super cool kids

Despite the global financial crisis, Perth's luxury boom continues. Burberry and Emporio Armani have joined the likes of Louis Vuitton, Prada, Tiffany & Co, Gucci and Bally in opening stores in the west. But instead of opting for a spot along King Street, the city's new luxury precinct, Burberry and Emporio Armani have located themselves in the nearby Wesley Quarter development. This is Burberry's largest store in Australia and the only one to stock its very cute children's wear. The collection is based on the brand's men's and women's collections and has clothes for boys and girls, including newborns. burberry.com

52 www.oldjewstellingjokes.com

A new joke every Tuesday and Thursday. Hilarity is guaranteed. Bookmark it now.

Going, going, gone ... gems to save children

If you're in New York on December 8 and have some spare cash, head to Christie's auction house. As part of Bulgari's 125th anniversary events, the Italian brand will be auctioning a selection of fine jewellery and watches to benefit the Save the Children charity. bulgari.com; christies.com

54

Skincare for men

After five years growing Mankind, his successful male grooming salon in Sydney, Paul Anderson has made the bold move into his own line of skincare. The practical and easy to use skincare system is free from artificial fragrance and colours and is infused with antioxidants, vitamins and essential oils to target lines and wrinkles. mankind.com.au

IN ASSOCIATION WITH
100 Years of Audi
 Vorsprung durch Technik

24 49

Shock, horror in Moonee Ponds

In a completely unauthorised biography of housewife-superstar, the divine Dame Edna, scoundrel Barry Humphries lays bare all he knows about her rollercoaster life, exposing secrets and clearly aiming for maximum embarrassment. Handling Edna (Hachette, $49.99) is published next month. Dame Edna was unavailable for comment.

51

Stop and smell the roses

There's plenty of gorgeous Rosa Damascena in FlowerbyKenzo Essentielle (right), in stores next week (45ml, $128). The floral bouquet in Idole d'Armani, which arrives here on September 20, mingles with top notes of bitter orange, pear and ginger (50ml, $130). Or just be seduced by Dior's intense oriental, Hypnotic Poison, which celebrates its 10th birthday with a collector's edition bottle that comes dressed with a ruby necklace (50ml, $120).

50

Surf the net in style with the Apple MacBook Pro

You spend so much time at the computer you might as well be working on one that looks and feels good. The aluminium Apple MacBook Pro now comes in three sizes – 13in, 15in, and 17in models – starting from $1899. apple.com/au

Who let the cat out of the bag?

Bradley Trevor Greive, that's who. His Why Dogs Are Better Than Cats, photographed by Rachael Hale and published next month by Andrews McMeel ($32.95), promises proof that pups have cats licked.

55

56-67

Angus Hughson's ultimate mixed dozen

- Clonakilla Shiraz Viognier 2005
- Cirillo 1850 Old Vine Grenache 2005
- Domaine A Cabernet Sauvignon 2000
- Domaine Armand Rousseau Chambertin Clos de Beze 2002
- Henschke Hill of Grace 2005
- Moss Wood Cabernet Sauvignon 2001
- Penfolds Bin 60A 1962
- Salon Cuvee S 1996
- La Spinetta Barbaresco Stardi 1999
- Tapanappa Chardonnay 2008
- Tyrrell's Vat 1 Semillon 1999
- Yarra Yering Dry Red No.1 2005

25